FRANCOIS HOLLANDE WISHES TO THE FRENCH PEOPLE A NEW YEAR OF DARING AND WILL FOR

OBAMA QUALIFIES 2014 OF A BREAKTHROUGH

Paris, Washington DC, 05.01.2015, 12:52 Time

USPA NEWS - The vows to the French by their President, Francois Hollande was to follow, Wednesday, December 31, from 8 pm on TF1, France 2, France 3 and M6 Tv Channels. The French audience were 9.8 million viewers, according PureMédias.

A YEAR OF AUDACITY-----The TV channels made a shared audience of 3.8 million on TF1 (23.2% of PDA), 2.6 million on France 2 (15.6% of PDA), 1.8 million on France 3 (10.9 PDA%) and 1.4 million on M6 (8.4% audience.). Speaking ten minutes, recorded in the late afternoon, since the Elysée office, the Head of State has acknowledged that particular 2014 was "rude" and reported the work already done, while drawing a roadmap: he wants to make of 2015 a "Year of audacity." He added at this point : "At one condition: move forward, be bold, to refuse the status quo and dismiss the regression".

FRANCE NEEDS AUDACITY: THE WILLINGNESS TO TAKE BOLD RISKS

This political tradition is an opportunity to send a strong message to the French, at the dawn of a new year starting, and that this year was centered around the "boldness and confidence in the future". He said. " We have every reason to trust us, he hammered even speaking of France as a "hope". Francois Hollande held a speech full of promises that 2015 must be "a year of daring action and of solidarity." His speaking is rather oriented from a human perspective rather than technical and more on the reforms economic situation concerns. (Economic growth at half mast rising unemployment, are the subjects to be avoided in this time of festivities).-----

Other aspects were discussed about the reforms that President follows through on his commitment, recalling the major projects, namely the account of hardship, the pact of responsibility, and territorial reform. He also affirms his unwavering support for the Macron law he calls "facelift for society"... (To be very maligned and to be presented at national Assembly for vote, from January, see article <http://www.uspa24.com/bericht-3144/the-draft-macron-law-done-much-ado-in-france.html>)

NO MORE FRENCH BASHING, PLEASE !

President François Hollande, insists his displeasure of the "French Bashing", which is to deny the capacity of the French and to doubt in succeed in France. The President, above all proclaimed his desire to end the "Denigration of France and the discouragement ". François Hollande therefore considers that France is ready: "France is able to be transformed, I know you're ready." He said.-----

AMERICA HAS STRAIGHTENED ITS ECONOMY BACK ON TRACK BY DARING THE GROWTH AND OF UNEMPLOYMENT BY DOWN-----

Meanwhile, things are different in another way, and with other economic context concerning the White House, in the US. Barack Obama, can afford to easily declare by the end of 2014: "Making 2014 was the strongest year for job growth since the 1990s". Indeed, America made a lot of progress this year. From our businesses adding more than 2.6 million jobs through the first 11 months to 10 million Americans gaining health coverage, and the uninsured rate hit a near-record low. Making 2014 the strongest year for job growth since the 1990s."2014 saw our economy growing at a record pace, an auto industry in high gear, and real action on immigration and climate change". (see www.whitehouse.gov)-----

OBAMACARE-----In fact, President Obama and his family just returned to the White House late this morning from their 17-day vacation to Hawaii. White House begins 2015 by praising Obamacare. In the first weekly address by the White House in 2015, Vice President Joe Biden urged Americans to enroll in healthcare under the Affordable Care Act. 2015 marks the 50th anniversary of Medicare, Medicaid, and the Older Americans Act, as well as the 80th anniversary of Social Security. The 2015 White House Conference on Aging is an opportunity to recognize the importance of these key programs as well as to look ahead to the issues that will help shape the landscape for older Americans for the next decade.-----

IMMIGRATION-EBOLA-ISIL-----The year of 2014, ending up debating about immigration and taking big decisions: The American President said "We were strangers once, too" about Immigration action to bring millions out of the shadows. The Head of State, also reviewed the US involved in foreign affairs, such as Ebola and ISIL, saying : "America took the lead in confronting the world's most pressing challenges, from the fight on the frontlines of the Ebola outbreak in West Africa. and the mission to degrade and destroy ISIL.

Barack Obama, remarks about the work to have been done, and how to get further declaring : "2014 was a year of action so let's take stock of where we've been before we look toward where we're going".-----

On the other side of the Atlantic, France is preparing (for the new year of 2015) in December 2015, the large conference climate in Paris, heralding great French projects eco friendly, to be both consistent with this initiative, which concerns the worldwide. The results born from the next discussions will set the conditions and new realities on how to protect the Earth. A great greeting for the Earth and a great ambition to the height of the global need to preserve, more than a want, it will save the future generations.

Regarding climate change, The US President took historic steps to cut carbon pollution in America (See article <http://www.newsrama.uspa24.com/bericht-2943/china-and-the-us-sign-a-unique-energetic-agreement.htm>
