FACADE MUSEUM OF IMMIGRATION IN PARIS TAINTED BY A RACIST STICKER

STICKER PROCLAIMS IMMIGRATION FAILURE

Paris, Washington DC, 20.03.2015, 20:13 Time

USPA NEWS - Leaflets against immigration and "multiculturalism" were stuck on the façade of the Museum of the History of Immigration in Paris. The President of the Museum of Immigration, Benjamin Stora, said Sunday evening on Europe 1 (French Radio) that the property has been vandalized several times.

Leaflets against immigration and graffiti have been placed on the building facade. The action was claimed by a relative of the far right group.-----

POLICE INVESTIGATION UNDERWAY-----Police sources, only confirm a "report" made by an employee of the museum "who discovered A4 posters stuck to entry" reading "a solution: re-migration", "multiculturalism is a failure and leads to France's civil war, "" mass immigration threatens our civilization and the future of our people "," re-migration is the only solution to prevent turmoil. " (Source metronews.fr)-----

On its website, the movement "French Dissent" close to the ideas of the extreme right, commends the operation conducted on the night of Thursday to Friday against the Museum of immigration ", described as" a place dedicated to the cosmopolitan globalist propaganda and rewriting of history, recently opened by French president Hollande. " (Source ccme.ma)

President François Hollande delivered mid-December his first major speech on immigration in this museum, which he officially inaugurated seven years after its opening. He castigated those who shake the fear of "dislocation" of France to boast the contrary, the contribution of immigrants to the Republic.
