PRESIDENT OBAMA SIGNS SANCTIONS TO SECURE THE CYBERSPACE FROM THREATS AND ATTACK

THE NEW EXECUTIVE ORDER

Paris, Washington DC, 08.04.2015, 13:30 Time

USPA NEWS - "With the new Executive Order I'm signing, I'm for the first time authorizing targeted sanctions against individuals or entities whose actions in cyberspace result in significant threats to the national security, foreign policy, economic health or financial stability of the US." Said President Obama

On the morning of April 1st, the White House issued a new Executive Order (EO) declaring a "national emergency" as "cyber-enabled activities" are a national threat. The consequence is to establishes sanctions and other consequences for individuals and entities.
After the attack in January, Obama called on Congress to pass new cybersecurity legislation that would require companies to inform clients when they have suffered a data breach and also share information with the government about hacking threats "" an issue that security officials believe is essential but has stirred fears over online privacy. (Source
