FRENCH EDUCATION IN TURMOIL DUE TO PROJECT OF REFORM OF MIDDLES SCHOOLS

MASSIVE STRIKE OF TEACHERS

Paris, Washington DC, 19.05.2015, 02:01 Time

USPA NEWS - French education jeopardized by its minister project of reform in middle schools. A large demonstration is scheduled for may 19th in France, organized by teachers' unions in France. 80% of teachers are expected in the street, supported by 6 out of 10 French approving this strike against the reform.

MINISTER OF EDUCATION NAJAT VALLAUD BELKACEM FAILS TO CONVINCE HER PLAN TO REFORM THE MIDDLE SCHOOLS-----

In France the national education which has recently experienced successive pedophilia cases that have tainted, is in turmoil because of the college reform. (See article "A RECIDIVIST PEDOPHILE DIRECTOR OF PRIMARY SCHOOL STOPPED BY POLICE IN FRANCE" <http://www.newsrama.uspa24.com/bericht-3687/a-recidivist-pedophile-director-of-primary-school-stopped-by-police-in-france.html>)-----

The repetition of other cases of pedophiles are then reported in other school just after the affair of Villefontaine. (See article "AFTER VILLEFONTAINE SCANDAL NEW PEDOPHILIA CASES AT OTHER PUBLIC FRENCH SCHOOLS" <http://www.newsrama.uspa24.com/bericht-3729/after-villefontaine-scandal-new-pedophilia-cases-at-other-public-french-schools.html>)-----

A few weeks later, national education facing another problem of "secularism" when the minister Najat Vallaud Belkacem, approves the decision of a college, excluding a student because she was wearing a skirt too long, considered too ostentatious.

See article "A YOUNG SCHOOLGIRL BANNED FROM HER SCHOOL FOR WEARING A SKIRT TOO LONG" <http://www.uspa24.com/bericht-4111/a-young-schoolgirl-banned-from-her-school-for-wearing-a-skirt-too-long.html>)

Some opponents, claim the outright withdrawal of this reform project deemed ill-prepared, ill-intentioned, enlarging social inequalities already high in colleges. Others claim (Political opposition to Right) demanding the resignation of Minister Najat Vallaud Belkacem. (See article LEMAIRE SPEAKS OF NATIONAL SINKING BY THE PROJECT OF MIDDLE SCHOOLS REFORM <http://www.newsrama.uspa24.com/bericht-4110/lemaire-speaks-of-national-sinking-by-the-project-of-middle-school-reform.html>).

MINISTER VALLAUD BELKACEM ANSWERS THE ATTACKS ON HER REFORM PROJECT VIA THE MEDIA----

Today, according to the national channel TF1, 60% of the French approve of the great strike demonstration against the reform of colleges that will take place may 19th in France. (Survey conducted by polling institute for national TV channel TF1, Les Echos, and FTI Consulting firm).-----

Furthermore, the results of a survey indicate Odoxa on ITV Canal Plus, that 61% of French oppose the reform. Just arrived at the Ministry, the Minister tried to forward the draft "gender theory", which had led to her petition requests cutter to demand his resignation. (Source: change.org, express). The gender theory is then relegated. In February 2015, she proposed deleting the notes in primary school. A great outcry, which led her to back away from her proposal.-----

Najat Vallaud Belkacem, current Minister of Education, spoke last week on RTL radio responding to college reform detractors. Ella struggled to argue the content of his reform project, as she attacked his critics calling them "pseudo intellectuals". Luc Ferry, responded by interposed media her that "The only reform that would be smart to college would be the diversification of routes, Najat Vallaud Belkacem wants to eliminate all that walking is an intellectual perversion." Luc Ferry has always regretted that the French education system produces the failure but failed to remedy it. "(His intervention) Deny that failure settles in school "). Luc Ferry, is not considered intellectual nickname because he is an associate professor of philosophy, teacher researcher, and was Minister of Education from 2002 to 2004 (Government of Right).-----For more information see: www.education.gouv.fr, www.gouvernement.gouv.fr, lepoint.fr, www.tf1.fr, www.lci.fr, www.leparisien.fr, afp.fr, www.change.org
